Proceedings of the Ohio Republican Convention

ALLEGED POISONING BY SALMON

General Grant's Trophies Packed for Shipment to Washington—A List of the Articles—Jim Renwick Wins a Race.

SPRINGFIELD, Ohio, June 11.—The republican state convention was called to order at 10 o'clock. The delegations of the eighty-eight counties of the state are all full, and over 4000 persons were packed in the wigwam. Committees were appointed and the convention took a recess until after dinner.

The state republican convention resumed its session this afternoon at 2. Over 4000 persons were accommodated within the wigwam and several thousand were on the street. [illegible] of Cuyahoga was made permanent chairman and addressed the convention.

THE PLATFORM.

At 4 o'clock, Hon. William McKinley, chairman of the committee on platform, offered the following resolutions which were unanimously adopted:

The republican party of Ohio announces the following platform of principles: The right to vote accorded by the constitution of the United States is the concern of the whole people, and must be secured at all hazards to every citizen in every part of the republic. Existing guarantees must be sacredly maintained and additional ones provided if necessary that equal protection of the laws and equal enjoyment of suffrage shall not fail or be abridged in any way through connivance, neglect or fraud in any of the states of the union. The democratic party which owes its national victory last fall to a willful suppression of the ballot cannot be looked to for the enforcement of these constitutional guarantees, and the hope of the friends of equal laws and equal suffrage is in the republican party, which pledges itself to wage the contest to a successful end.

We want such legislation as will harmonize the relations of labor and capital and promote the welfare of the people and protect and foster the industries of the state. We favor the establishment of a national bureau of industry, the enforcement of the eight hour law and adequate appropriations from the public revenues for general education wherever the same is needed. We denounce the importation of contract labor and favor the most stringent laws to effectually prevent it.

We are opposed to the acquisition of public lands or any part thereof by non-resident aliens.

THE TARIFF PLANK.

We are in favor of a protective tariff which will encourage American development and furnish remunerative employment to American labor, and we are opposed to the British policy advocated by the democratic party under the guise of tariff for revenue only. We demand the restoration of the wool duty of 1867 or its full equivalent, and we denounce the democratic congress for failing to redeem the pledges they made in this behalf.

We condemn the action of the present administration in lowering the national flag upon public buildings at Washington as a mark of respect to a man who dishonored the one and sought to destroy the other, who planned with cruel determination in his hiding place in Canada to overwhelm northern cities with fire, and to sweep to death their inhabitants by scattering everywhere the germs of infectious and fatal diseases.

We denounce the elevation to important and honorable offices of the government of unrepentant rebels whose political disabilities have not been removed, as a flagrant violation of the constitution and an insult to the loyal people of the whole country, and we denounce the administration of President Cleveland for its general discrimination so far made against Union soldiers for men who fought against the Union.

The republican party, which enacted the present civil service law, will faithfully maintain it and cheerfully aid in all needed amendments to give it full force, and it is committed to extend the law to all grades of service to which it is applicable, and ample appropriation should be made to enforce it in the letter and spirit, and all laws at variance with the object of existing reform legislation should be repealed. Having accomplished this much, the party pledges itself to still further and higher reforms. It looks with deepest regret upon the failure of the present administration to promote reforms in the civil service so auspiciously begun under republican administration.

The republican party of Ohio demands the repeal of the limitation contained in the pension arrears act of 1879 so that all invalid soldiers shall share equally and their pensions begin with the date of disability or discharge, and not with date of application.

THE LIQUOR QUESTION.

We denounce the democratic party for the destruction of the Scott law and consequent increase of burden of taxation upon all property and the loss of an annual revenue of $2,000,000, and while recognizing the people's right to amend organic law we demand the enactment of such legislation as will give us the most practical and efficient means for the regulation and taxation of the liquor traffic attainable under the constitution.

We denounce the democratic legislature for its treachery to its pledge on the subject of contract labor and its incompetency and extravagance in the management of the penitentiary. We denounce the present democratic assembly for its extravagance and wanton disregard of the true interests and good name of our state.

The republicans of Ohio, in convention assembled, tender to General Ulysses S. Grant their warm sympathy in this time of his great suffering, and assure him of their great faith and love for him, and earnestly hope that he may be restored to health and be blessed with many days among his grateful countrymen.

NOMINATIONS.

Judge Joseph B. Foraker of Cincinnati was nominated on the first ballot after the adoption of the platform by a vote of [illegible], and the nomination was made unanimous. The nominations of General Robert P. Kennedy for lieutenant governor, Judge George W. McIlvaine for Supreme Judge and John C. Brown of Jefferson for treasurer were by acclamation. J. A. Kohler of Summit was nominated for attorney general, and Wells S. Jones of Pike for board of public works.

ASSAYER HARRISON UNJUSTLY INJURED.

CHICAGO, June 11.—It appears that an effort has been made to injure R. B. Harrison, United States assayer in charge of the mint at Helena, who is a son of Senator Harrison of Indiana. The scheme, it is understood, originated with a discharged employe, but it is evident that others are sharing in it. Two days ago a dispatch was received over the wires saying that an investigation showed that the public money had been used for private purposes. As this was signed by the name of the authorized agent of the associated press it was permitted to pass. The friends of Mr. Harrison having challenged the statement, an investigation was instituted and the Helena agent was called on for an explanation. He promptly pronounced the use of his name a forgery. The Western Union Telegraph company have been called on by the associated press to explain why its manager at Helena accepted and transmitted a forged dispatch, and that company will be held to a strict accountability in this case. Word has been received from the United States mint examiner this morning that Mr. Harrison's office was found in perfect condition, and his accounts adjusted to a cent.

POISONED BY EATING CANNED SALMON.

NEW YORK, June 11.—[Special.]—A boy died yesterday at Staten Island from eating canned salmon. He ate the fish half an hour after the can had been opened. Others of the family were also affected. A doctor discovered traces of poison. The salmon was bought of F. J. Lewis, a grocery man at the corner of Ames and [illegible] streets. It was Columbia river salmon. Mrs. King said that she had often bought the same brand before without any harm following. Dr. [illegible] said that one year ago he had a case of a family of eight in a tenement house in Clifton who were all suffering from the same cause, they having eaten canned salmon. The symptoms exhibited in the child were the same as in that case. He believed the poison was from decomposition of the fish. If it had been from the solder there would have been traces of chemical poison.

WARNER'S SILVER SCHEME.

NEW YORK, June 11.—[Special.]—The Times regards the Warner scheme for stopping coinage and indefinitely suspending the purchase of silver as reasonably dead. Bankers and financiers still continue to discuss the project in the Herald and other papers. The prevailing sentiment among New York bankers does not seem to favor the plan, although several prominent bankers, like George S. Coe of the American Exchange bank and John A. Stewart of the United States Trust Company, evidently favor it. They will not discuss it publicly, however, and are waiting for the details of the plan to be more fully elaborated. A feature which meets with universal favor is the provision for withdrawing from circulation one and two dollar legal tender notes and [illegible] subsidiary silver coins therefor.

[illegible]

NEW YORK, June 11.—The board of trade yesterday voted in favor of the proposition contained in the memorial of the maritime association of this port that [illegible] be granted by government for every 100 miles sailed by sail or steam vessels built and owned in the United States and engaged in foreign commerce for ten years, after which the payment is to be reduced ten per cent annually. The board recommend early consideration and adoption of methods by congress.

THE DOLPHIN [illegible]

NEW YORK, June 11.—The new dispatch boat Dolphin made her final trial trip to-day, steaming six hours at sea. According to the log her voyage speed was [illegible] knots per hour, but according to the distance charts it was 13 9-10 knots. The vessel will probably be soon put in commission by the government.

THE COLORADO CATTLE GROWERS.

DENVER, June 11.—The Colorado cattle growers, at an adjourned meeting to-day, selected a cattle trail from the New Mexico boundary to the Arkansas river, on the line indicated by last night's dispatch. At the meeting to-morrow they will complete the trail north. It will then be submitted to the state association, which meets next Monday. As a plentiful supply of water along the trail is a vital necessity, and as water holes along the proposed route are owned by members of the southern association, who affirm most emphatically that the trail shall not be maintained through their ranges, the outcome is difficult to foresee.

STATE OFFICERS ELECTED.

CONCORD, N. H., June 11.—The senate and house met in joint convention to-day and proceeded to the election of state officers, with the following result: Secretary of state, A. B. Thompson; state printer, John B. Clarke; state treasurer, Solon A. Carter; and commissary general, Frank L. Brown. A republican caucus for candidate for United States senator to-night resulted in the nomination of Senator Henry W. Blair on the first ballot.

SMALLPOX.

NEW YORK, June 11.—The steamers Weser and [illegible] have been lying in quarantine for [illegible] days off the boarding station. During that interval [illegible] taken [illegible] No less than forty [illegible] have appeared [illegible] passengers.

GENERAL GRANT'S CONDITION.

NEW YORK, June 11.—General Grant did not go to sleep until late last night, but he slept well and did not get up until late this morning. He got about the usual number of hours of sleep, and was not dressed until 10 o'clock.

GENERAL GRANT'S TROPHIES.

An Agent from Washington Packs them for Shipment—List of the Articles.

NEW YORK, June 11.—Colonel R. N. Batchelder, who was sent from Washington by the war department to receive the sword and tokens of honor belonging to General Grant, called to-day at the general's house, accompanied by two expert packers of rare furniture and bric-a-brac. The property which has been turned over to the government by Mrs. Grant, who received it in trust from William H. Vanderbilt, was produced, and as each article was packed its destination was checked off the list as follows: Mexican onyx cabinet presented General Grant by the people of Puebla, Mexico, part of an onyx table which passed over Mexico in 1871; bronze vases presented General Grant by the people of Yokohama, Japan; marble bust on pedestal, presented by workingmen of Philadelphia; large elephant tusks presented by the King of Siam; small elephant tusks presented by the maharajah of [illegible]; picture of Gen. Scott by Page, presented by gentlemen of New York; cloisonne bowls (very old) presented by Prince Kung of China; cloisonne jars (very old), presented by Li Hung Chang; Chinese porcelain jars (old), presented by Prince Kung of China; Arabian bible and Coptic bible presented by Lord Napier, who captured them with King Theodore of Abyssinia; sporting rifle; sword of Donelson, presented to General Grant after the fall of Fort Donelson by officers of the army, and used by him to the end of the war; sword voted to General Grant at a New York fair; sword of Chattanooga, presented by citizens of Jo Daviess county, Illinois, to Galena after the battle of Chattanooga; [illegible] silver menu and card for welcome dinner of San Francisco; silver menu card of Paris dinner; bronze and silver snuff box; silver match box used by General Grant; gold table modeled after the table in Mr. McLean's house on which General R. E. Lee signed articles of surrender, presented to General Grant by ex-confederate soldiers; gold cigar case from the King of Siam; gold handled knife presented by miners of Idaho territory; silver trowel used by General Grant in laying the corner stone of the museum of natural history, New York; knife made at Sheffield for General Grant; General Grant's [illegible] presented by citizens of Japan; field glasses used by General Grant during the war; gold headed cane made from the wood of the Merrimac; [illegible] cane from wood used in [illegible] Fort Sumpter; gold headed cane made out of wood from old Fort Du Quesne; [illegible] gold headed cane presented as token of General Grant's humanity during the war; gold headed cane used by Lafayette, presented by ladies of Baltimore; carved wood cane from [illegible] Sir Walter Scott; uniform as general of the United States army [illegible] during the war by Mrs. Grant after various battles; [illegible] ornaments used at Belmont and Fort Donelson; shoulder straps, brigadier general, worn by General Grant at Belmont, Fort Donelson and Shiloh, and straps of lieutenant general cut from coat worn by General Grant in the campaign against Richmond, Petersburg and Lee's army; medal [illegible] from American congress for [illegible] Mississippi; gold medal from Philadelphia [illegible] medals in gold, silver and bronze; silk papers printed for General Grant; collection of old Japanese coins. This is the only complete set except one in the Japanese treasury. Seven of the pieces cost $5000, presented by the government of Japan; warrant as cadet at West Point, and army commissions from brevet second lieutenant to that of general of the United States army.

The list concluded with sixty-seven papers and mementoes, comprising addresses and resolutions of respect as well as freedom of cities presented abroad. As the papers and smaller articles were checked they were packed in a large box, and this when full was covered, sealed and loaded upon a truck at the curb, where a man stood guard over the property. The onyx cabinet was carried out unpacked, to be boxed elsewhere. Also some vases and bronzes. A picture of General Grant and family and some other articles will be removed to-morrow. The general's swords were secured in three long flat boxes, with brass handles, and his uniform as general of the United States army was carried in a package by Colonel Batchelder. The property will be shipped to Washington by express.

ACCIDENTS.

[illegible] KILLED AND SEVERAL [illegible]

GALVESTON, June 11.—Special to the News from Zacatecas, Mexico: Twelve miles from Zacatecas is situated the celebrated [illegible] mine, that has produced ever since the Spanish conquest, and yielded untold millions of silver during that time. Within the past few years it has been newly developed and fitted throughout with the most costly modern machinery. The work of recovering and reopening all portions of the great mine has been in progress, and large quantities of timber and other material, including blasting powder, has been kept on hand. This morning an explosion occurred that was plainly heard in Zacatecas. Five hundred cases of giant powder had gone off by some means unknown. Ten persons were killed outright and as many more wounded. The mine and everything near it is a complete wreck, and the surface improvements were totally destroyed.

SEVERAL MEN KILLED AND INJURED.

CHATTANOOGA, June 11.—A dispatch to the Times from [illegible], Tennessee, on the Cincinnati Southern railway, says a tunnel caved in to-day on a construction train, and six persons were killed and twenty wounded. The wires are down and no names or details can be learned.

CRIMINAL CALENDAR.

SHOOTING AFFRAY IN KENTUCKY.

LOUISVILLE, June 11.—A special to the Courier-Journal from East Bernstadt, Lawrence county, Ky., says: A terrible shooting affray occurred this afternoon between three brothers, George, William and James Thompson, and Wilkerson and Julius Lawson, cousins. The difficulty was over some gossip over the families of the parties. They all met [illegible] and instead [illegible] Thompson and Wilkerson Lawson began shooting at each other, and the others joined in with pistols and guns. Wilkerson Lawson was instantly killed. George Thompson and Julius Lawson received several dangerous wounds. [illegible]

FOREIGN DISPATCHES

British Affairs Still Involved in Uncertainty.

THE AIR FILLED WITH RUMORS

The Queen Sends an Imperative Summons to Gladstone—The Ministry Charged with Bringing About Their Defeat.

LONDON, June 11.—Everything in regard to the government crisis is still unsettled.

The Standard (conservative) declares that the conservatives are ready to form a government at the bidding of the queen.

The News (liberal) urges Gladstone to persist in his resolution to resign, and [illegible] months [illegible] will return him to power stronger than ever before.

The Times advises the ministers to [illegible] of resigning. It says that the result of the vote Monday night was due to [illegible] the liberal whips for getting members to attend. It plainly intimates that ministers will find in the queen an awkward customer who will insist upon being given cogent reasons for their proposed action and even then will probably refuse to accept their resignations.

FROM THE STANDARD.

LONDON, June 11.—The Standard says it is understood the queen has requested Gladstone to transmit to her his views in full on the political crisis, in order that arrangements may be made to avert an immediate change in the British ministry. It is not expected, the Standard continues, that the queen will accept the resignations of the ministers [illegible] final decision will be reached [illegible] the question of changing the government until her majesty returns to Windsor castle. The conservatives can do nothing, the paper argues, until the queen's wants are made known. In the meantime it is doubtful if the liberal cabinet can hold together, so great are the differences at present existing between its members. There exists a spirit which daily deepens, the Standard further declares, that the Gladstone ministry courted their recent defeat for the purpose of concealing [illegible] their own dissensions. [illegible] since the defeat by some liberal members who absented themselves from the vote on the final division, show that the government might have saved themselves on that vote if they had cared seriously to do so.

THE QUEEN TO CONFER WITH GLADSTONE.

The queen has made an appointment with Gladstone [illegible] the present crisis in British political affairs. The conference will take place next Thursday at Balmoral castle. The queen has arranged to return to Windsor castle the 20th inst.

PLENTY OF RUMORS.

LONDON, June 11.—Nearly every hour brings fresh rumors concerning the ministerial position. The latest of these rumors is that the marquis of Hartington, secretary of state for war, will be asked by the queen to reconstruct a liberal ministry, Gladstone to retire. Nothing reliable, however, has transpired to-day up to this hour.

LORD SALISBURY'S CONDITION.

Lord Salisbury in a formal conference with a number of conservatives in the house of commons said he would refuse office unless assured by the liberal leaders that factional opposition would not hamper the administration. If the liberal majority were willing to give fair play to the conservative ministry, office might be accepted. Without such understanding between the leaders of both sides it would be impossible for the conservatives to undertake the government. The possibility of such an understanding is being discussed in political clubs. Mr. Gladstone, Lord Hartington and other moderate liberals, it is believed, would accede, while Chamberlain and Sir Charles Dilke would refuse. Mr. Chamberlain's organ, the Birmingham Post, to-day describes the radical policy in the event of a tory ministry being formed. They must, the Post says, be watched, checked, forbidden to legislate, and compelled to explain and justify every step, and so bound, limited and prevented from using for their own purposes the position to which they have no real claim. These and similar declarations of other liberal papers intensify the feeling of the rank and file of the conservatives against accepting office, as impossible without guarantees of some support at the hands of the moderate liberals.

THE QUEEN ASKS FOR ADVICE.

The queen is in close communication with the Prince of Wales and several members of the privy council. It is the first time she has sought the advice of the prince in a state crisis. It is reported that he advised the queen to follow constitutional precedent and call Marquis Salisbury to form a new cabinet.

The latest report is to the effect that the queen has summoned Lord Salisbury to Balmoral and that the marquis left London to-night for the castle.

If the tory cabinet is formed Gladstone's immediate retirement from public life is certain, and the marquis of Hartington will be left to lead the opposition. The news that Gladstone intends to make his retirement coincident with his resignation dismays the liberals, who relied upon having a leader in the electoral campaign.

GLADSTONE SUMMONED TO BALMORAL.

A royal courier arrived in London this afternoon bringing the queen's reply to Gladstone's letter. It is understood the reply contains an imperative summons for Gladstone's attendance at Balmoral, and that the premier left for Scotland by the next train. The Court Circular announces that in consequence of political affairs the queen will proceed to London as soon as possible.

Gladstone still wishes to abandon political life, but if he changes his mind and continues at the head of British political affairs, it will be at the urgent solicitation of the queen.

WHY GLADSTONE RESIGNED.

BERLIN, June 11.—German diplomats allege that one of the causes, and the greatest, of the resignation of the Gladstone government was the failure of the secret mission of the earl of Rosebery to Berlin. These diplomats now assert that the object of that mission was to secure a reconciliation between Gladstone and Prince Bismarck. Another cause is said to be the failure of the Right Hon. Joseph Chamberlain's secret mission to Paris. Chamberlain's trip to Paris was, at the time it was made, announced to be simply for pleasure and recreation. Officials in the kaiser's foreign service declare, however, that Chamberlain was sent to the French capital by Gladstone for the purpose of obtaining from M. de Freycinet, French minister of foreign affairs, an Anglo-French alliance in Egyptian affairs. This was to be based on unequal shares in control of the country, English control to be paramount, the consideration to be accorded France being an embassy from King John of Abyssinia, the establishment of which, in the khedive's dominions and in the relations with England, would prove counteractive of Italian designs. It is declared that the failure of both of these missions greatly discouraged Gladstone, who, losing heart at the discovery of what he believed was a deep hostility against England entertained by her nearest continental neighbors, suddenly [illegible] of the failure of his foreign policy [illegible] abandon political life.

SPECIAL NEWS AND GOSSIP.

[illegible] Behind the Political Scenes—The Queen Severely Censured.

LONDON, June 11.—[Special.]—Much of the hesitation of the conservatives to accept office is the result of divided counsels within their own party. The obstacle to union and discipline is, as usual, Lord Randolph Churchill. He is cordially disliked for his bumptiousness by a strong section of the party, but on the other hand, he has been a potent factor in bringing about the liberal defeat, and his claims to a good place in the cabinet are stronger than those of any other man of his years in the party. The issue which Lord Randolph selected is a test of his strength and individual following. [illegible] Other conservatives, equally prominent in the party, and without whom a strong cabinet could hardly be formed, declare plainly that they will not attempt the task of government without renewal of the crimes act. The Churchill division has therefore split the party very nearly in the center, and may prevent it from accepting office.

THE FEELING AMONG POLITICIANS.

[Special.]—The result of a number of interviews with liberal, conservative, radical and home rule politicians has been to show that the two great parties are [illegible] The [illegible] are getting what comfort they can out of the fact that the moral sense of the country is believed to be with them on the spirit tax question, and that [illegible] opponents may be trusted to make fatal [illegible] between now and the general elections.

THE [illegible]

NEW YORK, June 11.—[Special.]—[illegible] Monday night. Things are at a dead lock, as far as the leaders of the two great parties are concerned, through the unwillingness of the liberals to abandon and the reluctance of conservatives to assume the responsibilities of office. The initiative that shall settle the question must come from the outside, that is to say, the queen. It is now admitted that all depends upon her action, and there is open grumbling at her absence in Scotland in such a crisis. Strong hints are given by even the most loyal newspapers that it is her duty to return forthwith to London or to Windsor, in view of the great delay likely to be caused by her absence. The house of commons had to be adjourned for three days, instead of one, because the queen was 600 miles away. Every statesman whom she desires to see, and she will doubtless find necessity for consulting with several of them, must take an all-day journey to wait upon her, and they cannot all be summoned at once, but each must wait until his predecessor's audience is finished. All this must greatly prolong the existing condition of semi-chaos, while the country is running itself with practically no government in existence. This must surely and unnecessarily tax the patience of the people who long to see the crisis ended one way or another, must unsettle values and derange business, and must bring confusion into the thousand administrative details which are left at loose ends. It is generally believed this evening that the queen will advise the present ministry to remain in office until the approaching general elections give the country means of deciding between their policy and that of the opposition.

GLADSTONE PLAYED TO LOSE.

NEW YORK, June 11.—[Special.]—The Post's London correspondent cables as follows: I can state with confidence that so far from the defeat being a great blow to the Gladstone ministry, no special effort was made to avoid it. It is quite certain that the government played to lose. The differences about coercion were further than ever from being settled, so not being able to steer the ship of state, the government stranded it. As the tories are always professing great anxiety to be in office, the best tactics were to let them try. The resignation of Gladstone has placed the conservatives in a most awkward and possibly ruinous position, and welded the liberal party throughout the country together again. The report of Gladstone's departure for Balmoral was incorrect. When he received the queen's refusal to come to London he pleaded illness and sent off a royal messenger to her. Much indignation is expressed at the queen's attempt to compel all political leaders, even when they are men of advanced age and delicate health, to make a journey of several hundred miles to save her trouble. She will probably have to return to Windsor.

FRANCE

FRIGHTFUL DISASTER IN A COURT HOUSE.

PARIS, June 11.—At Thiers, a town in the department of Puy de Dome, a murder trial has been in progress for several days. Yesterday was the last day of the trial, and the court house was crowded with men and women, anxious to witness the closing scenes. When the people were leaving, immediately after the adjournment of court, and were jammed upon the stone stairway leading to the street, the lofty staircase fell. The scene that followed was appalling. Immense masses of masonry from above crashed down upon the struggling people below, grinding through their flesh and bones and maiming and mutilating them in a horrible manner. The fall of the staircase and the screams of the people lying helpless in the ruins caused a panic in the court room, and there was a rush for the now wrecked exit. Those who were in front, unable to withstand the pressure from behind, were hurled down upon the men and women crushed in the fall of the staircase, and whom the people in the street were already striving to rescue. When at length the panic had exhausted itself and the immense stone steps of the fallen staircase had been removed, twenty persons were taken from the ruins dead. The injured numbered not less than sixty, and many of these will die of their injuries.

A late dispatch says that in addition to twenty persons killed in the court house disaster yesterday fully 100 persons were injured.

A still later dispatch from Thiers makes the court house calamity there yesterday by far more disastrous in its consequences than earlier dispatches indicated. The dead already number twenty four. The total number injured is now placed at 163. Of these, fourteen are very seriously injured, and will die.

THE SUEZ CANAL COMMISSION.

PARIS, June 11.—The political crisis in British affairs strengthens the belief generally entertained here that the international Suez canal commission at present in session will dissolve without reaching any decision on clause 10. It is thought that after dissolution drafts of the proposed treaty, each containing the full text of clause 10, will be submitted to the different powers, who will deal through their respective diplomatic agents with the question involved.

HOW TO APPLY FOR AN OFFICE.

A Texas Man Appointed and Immediately Asked to Resign—No More Silver to be Coined on the Pacific Coast—Etc.

SECRETARY MANNING ON THE SILVER QUESTION.

WASHINGTON, June 11.—[Special.]—Secretary Manning does not talk about Warner's silver scheme at all, except to say that he has heard of it, that he has only a brief acquaintance with Warner, and that he knows that the newspapers are full of the proposition. Men who are in a position to know the secretary's views say he will have nothing to do with any scheme that will anticipate the action of congress. He is known to be firm in his loyalty to the silver letter of Cleveland, sent to Warner last spring. If he can do anything to help keep the business of the country on a gold basis until the meeting of congress he will do it. Then, if the people shall say that gold or silver shall rule, or there shall be some compromise by which both shall be recognized, it will be his duty as an executive officer to administer the law which congress in its wisdom may enact. It is known that some members of the administration circle fear it will not be possible to keep business on a gold basis, and regard discussion of the silver question at this time as likely to do much to put off a change.

SCHEME TO PREVENT DEFALCATIONS.

WASHINGTON, June 11.—Among a number of suggestions made to the secretary of the treasury, designed to prevent any repetition of the recent defalcation at the New Orleans sub-treasury, is one which proposes to reduce the amount of government money at that point from about $15,000,000 to $5,000,000, and to distribute it among the various national and state banks of New Orleans as deposits, upon their giving appropriate security in government bonds to be deposited in the United States treasury at Washington. This plan, as submitted to the secretary, refers only to New Orleans, although evidently the purpose of its originators seems to contemplate its extension to other sub-treasuries if it should be adopted and prove satisfactory at New Orleans. No action has as yet been taken on this proposition, or upon any other suggestions above referred to, but they are all under consideration.

HOW TO APPLY FOR AN OFFICE.

WASHINGTON, June 11.—Since the incoming of the new administration the heads of various departments have received numerous applications for office without any specifications as to what particular office the candidate desired, and to-day a letter was sent from the White house, in reply to a letter from a gentleman in Philadelphia who inquired as to the proper method of filing an application for office. The reply is of interest to all seeking places under the government, and is given to the press for publication. It says: "To secure attention to an application for appointment the particular position should be named. When this is done papers are filed in the proper department, and when the matter of appointment is to be determined the name and a brief of its endorsements are laid before the president, by the head of the department."

PASSING AROUND A PAUPER FAMILY.

WASHINGTON, June 11.—The secretary of the treasury has received a letter from the guardians of the poor of Pittsburg, stating that a pauper family forwarded to that place from Boston have been sent to Washington, with a view not only of ridding themselves of the incumbrance, but for the purpose of testing the application of the "head money" tax imposed by congress upon all immigrants at sea ports who are likely to become a charge upon the public. The letter of the Pittsburg authorities has been sent by the secretary of the treasury to the district commissioners, who now have the matter under consideration. It is understood, however, that they will not allow this case to become a precedent. The family will probably be sent back to Boston, the port at which they were illegally allowed to land.

A SPEEDY RESIGNATION.

WASHINGTON, June 11.—The appointment of Jas. A. George of Denison, Texas, as inspector of fraudulent land entries made to-day, met with considerable opposition, and Secretary Lamar has received a number of dispatches protesting against it and containing charges of a serious nature against George. George was made aware of this, and immediately tendered his resignation, in order that the secretary might have the fullest opportunity to investigate without embarrassment the charges against him. His resignation was accepted to-night, and an investigation will be made at once.

THE TAX ON ALIENS.

WASHINGTON, June 11.—The question having arisen as to whether an alien coming into this country and paying his "head money" shall in future be exempt from all further tax of this kind, Secretary Manning referred the matter to Attorney General Garland. The attorney general holds that the capitation tax levied under the immigration act must be collected every time that an alien passenger comes into the United States. Under the act of August 3, 1882, the tax has heretofore been levied only on the first coming of alien passengers.

MEMORIAL STONES TO BE INSERTED.

WASHINGTON, June 11.—Fifty-three memorial stones for Washington monument, which have for many years been stored away, have been selected to be placed on the interior wall of the structure. The selected stones are those presented by foreign countries, states and territories, and Masonic, I. O. O. F., and temperance societies. They are to be placed on the walls, between the heights of 160 and 240 feet, and are to be cut down to thin slabs of four to eight inches thickness and inserted in cuts made in the wall, so that they will not project.

Wearn at $3 57; for the Rosebud agency, 6,500,000 pounds, at $2 53, to A. H. Swan of Cheyenne; to the Pine Ridge Agency, 6,500,000 pounds, at $[illegible] 45, to Strang Bros. of Sioux City.

The secretary also calls attention to the law on the subject, which provides that any person who has unlawful possession of any such distinctive paper shall be subject to a fine of not more than $5000 or imprisonment at hard labor for not more than fifteen years, or both.

CABINET MEETING.

WASHINGTON, June 11.—The cabinet meeting to-day was devoted to general discussion of business before the several departments. One of the questions considered was in regard to the distribution of the $400,000 appropriated for the benefit of American steamships engaged in the foreign mail service. Final action in the matter will be deferred until the return to the city of Secretary Bayard.

HOW TO GET AT IT.

Though Mr Pennoyer tries to work up an issue on water rates, he knows, of course, that the mayor and common council of the city have no power over the subject He can only promise, therefore, that if he is elected he will "see that at the very first session of the legislature the right to remedy this flagrant abuse"—i e, to reduce the rates—"shall be conferred upon the city council " This is promising a great deal. Mr Pennoyer knows, undoubtedly, that his position as mayor should he be elected, would give him no more power over the subject than he would have as a private citizen. The truth is, the water rates ought not to be controlled by the common council. It would open a floodgate of corruption that would swamp the city government Knowledge of this fact constituted the main reason why Mr. Pennoyer's effort last winter to get the legislature to confer this power on the common council failed The rates should be regulated either by the legislature itself or by a commission appointed for the purpose by the governor, or by the legislature and the governor together. What is reasonable and fair both for the public and for the water company should be studied, and the adjustment should be free from the danger of purchase or corruption. If the common council is to fix the rate, the water company will be tempted to interfere with every election. It will have the strongest incentive to use money in large sums, either to control the election of members of the council or to manage them after they are elected. On the one hand there will be danger of such corruptions as will make elections a hideous farce and subvert all government, and on the other the possibility of such injustice in the regulation of rates as will amount to virtual confiscation of the property It is quite characteristic of Mr Pennoyer's methods that he does not see the utter impracticability of his proposition to get the legislature to confer on the common council the power to fix the rates. Every person of sound judgment sees at once that it will not do at all

Mr. Pennoyer takes it upon himself to say that "the water company of this city is controlled by a political boss, who dictates the nominations of one party and has endeavored to control those of the other " It is probable that the author of this statement, who has a well-known habit of relying upon his imagination for his facts, means to say that the water company is controlled by D P Thompson, and that the republican city ticket was nominated under Thompson's direction. Both intimations rest on mere assumption. Thompson is among the small stockholders of the company, having sold a large part of his stock many months ago The members of the republican convention all know that he was not consulted in any way about the nominations, and that he was entirely ignorant of the intentions of the convention regarding them Besides, it is well known that among the owners and managers of the water company there is a strong democratic element—a fact that makes Mr Pennoyer's assumption that it is a republican political machine extremely ridiculous.

It is well understood that Mr Gates favors reduction of water rates and it may justly be contended that as a more practical man than Mr Pennoyer, he would favor sounder methods of securing the result. Mr Pennoyer's scheme would simply introduce a contest of corrupt appliances into our city affairs, from which every citizen who thinks of it must shrink with alarm

The water rates charged in Portland are much too high We believe that the company had they rightly considered their own interests, would ere this have reduced them The power to reduce and regulate the rates by law must be sought from the legislature, but it should by no means be conferred on the common council As might be supposed, Mr Pennoyer's estimate of the annual sum collected by the company is excessive He says "We are taxed at least $120,000 per annum over and above what we ought justly to be taxed for our water supply " It is known, however, to those who have looked into the subject for real information that the entire receipts of the water company, in its best year, have not quite reached the sum of $104,000. Loose declamation on this subject for the purposes of an election is not what is wanted The question is, indeed, in no way involved in the election to be held next Monday but it may be said since the subject is brought under discussion at this time, that the people of Portland are entitled to reduction and adjustment of water rates, and that as a citizen Mr Gates is not in any degree behind Mr. Pennoyer in his desire to secure this result, while, as we believe, he is far ahead of him in judgment as to the proper way to secure it.

There is yet another phase of the subject. So fine a field for profitable investment as Mr. Pennoyer's letter would indicate, ought it would seem, to invite competition. The city has for years been offering inducements to other companies to enter, with water supply, yet no company comes in The reason may be that men who have money do not think that Mr Pennoyer's figures purporting to give an exhibit of profits are a sufficiently trustworthy basis to justify investment.

INDIRECTION AND HYPOCRISY

A dispatch from Washington states that thirty six postoffice inspectors are to be appointed at once, to fill vacancies Only about two months ago these places were made vacant by dismissal, on the plea that the services of the officials were not needed The prediction then made that this would prove merely a hypocritical method of getting a lot of democrats into official places is now confirmed

Since it is undoubtedly the purpose of the administration to make a clean sweep let it go about the business at once in a direct and open manner, and do away with all false pretensions about it. As the St. Paul Pioneer Press says "The public has nothing in particular to complain of in these removals and appointments Some of them are good, some bad, and a great fraction indifferent. But it is well to remember that they exist, and that they give the lie to all pretensions that removals and appointments are being made solely with an eye to the good of the public service

Nor is it honest to attempt to make cases against officials In any neighborhood one can get fifty democrats to swear that the postmaster is an "offensive partisan, that he worked last fall for his party, and that he ought to be removed It would not be so easy to secure evidence that the incumbent had neglected his official duties, and it does not appear that such evidence is called for by the administration It is dishonest to attempt to convey the impression that removals are to be made for other than political reasons The manly way is the best way If the administration wants the offices to stop the clamor of its adherents let it take them without fooling If the policy that the spoils belong to the victors is to be enforced let it be enforced honestly and squarely, and not in a roundabout and sneaking way There is no republican who will find fault with the administration for carrying out the democratic doctrine of spoils It is what they expected as a result of democratic administration The thing which honest men denounce is the indirect and cowardly policy of vacating offices on the plea that they are unnecessary, and after a few weeks filling them up with democrats together with the cowardly and hypocritical method of working up charges of "offensive partisanship" against republican officials, as a cause for distribution of spoils to democratic claimants, who are at least as "partisan as the republican incumbents

It is no small matter that the Willamette river is to be stocked with eastern shad There is no finer food fish than the shad, and its ability to thrive and multiply in these waters has been already demonstrated A few years ago the Sacramento river, in California, was similarly stocked, and shad are now taken there in sufficient numbers to supply the markets of the whole state. Many of the fish have ventured out to salt water and have found their way along the coast, and all the rivers as far north as Puget Sound have gotten a share Considerable numbers have been taken in the Columbia near Astoria during the past two years. The people of the Willamette valley will, within a year or two, have more benefit from the stocking of the river with shad than they could from a fish-ladder at the falls big enough to pass up all the steel-head salmon in the Pacific ocean.

A dispatch quotes the London Daily Telegraph as expressing the hope that the United States government will soon raise the legation at London to an embassy, and as declaring that such a change would be universally approved in England This shows an ignorance of terms and customs hardly to be expected from so great a journal as the Telegraph. The United States can never have an embassy in England or elsewhere so long as it remains a republic. An embassador is the personal representative of a personal sovereign The highest rank possible under our government in its representation abroad is that of minister

It is the fashion at Washington with the president and his cabinet officers to tell members of congress who want a constituent appointed to any office, to "file the papers," and the matter will be duly considered A good story is told of an interview between Secretary Bayard and Congressman Scott of Erie Scott asked Bayard to give one of his constituents a consulship and was told to "file the papers. To which Scott replied "I filed a check for $25,000 last fall to help elect the administration, and I'll be blanked if I file anything more " Mr Scott's friend was appointed.

The question of water rates, it is needless to say, can be in no possible way affected by the coming city election, let that election go how it will. But if Brother Pennoyer didn't embrace this opportunity to run off into a vagary he would disappoint people by failing to do a characteristic thing, Some years ago he would have made his canvass on the resolutions of '98, or perhaps on a theory of tidal motions designed to upset the Newtonian philosophy. To those who know him none of his eccentricities are surprising, though some of them are rather remarkable.

Brother Pennoyer's heart is usually in the right place But it may be judged from the letters which he has long had a habit of writing for the newspapers that his liver is pretty often out of gear

A new trouble grows out of the revision Temperance lecturers will now be compelled to call drinking saloons "sheol-holes."

WASHINGTON

Miss Elza Shook of Lincoln county, died last week from injuries received by a fall from a horse

The Spokane Falls Daily Review has closed its first year with success It is a very neat worthy paper for the town it thrives in.

The Tacoma News finds that 350 men are employed in the Puget sound logging camps, and the daily output is 1,167,000 feet.

Hon Elwood Evans has accepted the invitation to address the Washington pioneers at their annual meeting on the 16th inst.

The petition of the Snohomish people for a daily mail from Seattle has received the endorsement of Delegate Voorhees, and the matter is now being investigated by the postoffice department.

The Columbia and Puget Sound Railroad Company is now running five trains per day over its road three from Newcastle, one from Black Diamond, and one from the Cedar mountain mine

The repairs to the machinery of the revenue cutter Corwin being completed, she sailed on Saturday for Alaska The day before she broke her crank pin, and during a heavy gale she lost two of her boats and one of her crew

Last Saturday a 3 year old child of Mrs Neyland who resides near Black lake, was drowned by falling into a well The lady lost her husband about a year ago, and subsequently two of her children have died of diphtheria.

Seattle Post Intelligencer Captain Beecher does not expect to enter upon the duties of his office until the commencement of the new fiscal year, July 1st. The captain is silent on the subject of new appointments, and so far has on no occasion promised to make any

A 3 year old son of Mr and Mrs. John Bolander of Tacoma, died Wednesday from the effects of the lodgment of some foreign substance in the windpipe near the entrance to the lungs. It was impossible to discover the object although an incision was made for the purpose

The Tacoma board of trade has its eye on the Whatcom trade, and to that end is endeavoring to secure a steamer to run directly from Tacoma to Whatcom A few days ago Captain Brittain, owner of the W F Munroe, was sent for by that organization, in order to ascertain on what terms his steamer could be procured to run on that route

Olympia Courier Within the next two weeks the extensive alterations to the steamer Wildwood will be completed, and so much changed will that steamer appear that even her old friends will not recognize her All the old upper works have been taken off, and the hull has been widened several feet by placing sponsons on either side of her New upper works, somewhat similar to those on the Evangel, are being placed on the Wildwood On the lower deck, forward of the engine room, will be a freight and baggage apartment. On one side of the engine room will be the kitchen and on the other side a sort of dressing room Just abaft the engine room apartment will be a good sized passenger cabin, fitted up much like a parlor, with bright carpets, easy chairs upholstered settees, etc On the upper deck, just abaft the pilot house will be several staterooms, an office, etc., and abaft of this a dining room A new propeller has been placed on the boat, which will increase her speed considerably She is 76 feet long 18 feet beam and will draw 8 feet of water She is to be painted white both upper works and hull Seventeen men are kept busy as bees in making these radical changes in the Wildwood Captain [illegible], her new owner, will place the Wildwood on the route between Olympia and Port Townsend stopping at Tacoma Seattle and all way ports

IDAHO

We visited the new strike in the Oro Fino on Tuesday in company with Mr Timothy Regan, the owner of that ledge, says the Idaho Avalanche of the 6th and found that the richness of the ore being extracted had not been misrepresented, as much of it was literally speckled with gold The shaft is now down about thirty feet, and from appearances the ledge will prove a bonanza The strike is immediately north of the old discovery shaft, and to look at the ore reminds one of the palmy days of the Oro Fino We selected a specimen of the ore which can be seen at our office Good judges of ore estimate that it will mill not less than $350 per ton McMahon brothers are working the ledge The best of the ore is being sacked

Don't You Know

[illegible] Don't you know that it may lead to consumption or insanity to death? Don't you know that it can be easily cured Don't you know that while the thousand and one nostrums you have tried have utterly failed that Dr Sage's Catarrh Remedy is a certain cure? It has stood the test of years, and there are hundreds of thousands of grateful men and women in all parts of the country who can testify to its efficacy All druggists

THE REVISED VERSION OF THE HOLY BIBLE AT AYER'S BOOK STORE 93 First st., Portland, Or.

PREAMBLE AND RESOLUTION

Adopted by the Ladies of the W C T U of Portland, Oregon, June 9.

WHEREAS The sale and use of intoxicating beverages in our midst promotes immorality and is working great havoc in families and congregations and imperatively calls for the combined action of all friends of temperance to successfully arrest this great evil and to destroy the liquor traffic and

WHEREAS The liquor sellers and brewers associations of our nation have formed powerful organizations to circulate documents intended to perpetrate the entire saloon element of this fair land in a crusade of desolation and death and these circulars and documents of evil tendency are so worded as to hide their sinister purposes and thus to grently augment the perils to our households and the best interests of our state and

WHEREAS The gospel temperance labors of the W C T Unions in many of the states and also in Great Britain and her colonies have been crowned with gratifying results, e g, Iowa Kansas Georgia, Maryland and Maine and

WHEREAS Oregon is a state of excellent and widespread reputation for its churches, Sabbath schools institutions of learning, morality and temperance therefore be it

Resolved that the ladies of the W C T U of Portland do respectfully and earnestly ask the ministers of the gospel of this city to inform their congregations that a series of temperance meetings are now being held in their hall, on Fifth and Alder streets and that Mr Frank Allen, right recently from Iowa and other eastern states where he has labored very successfully and whence he comes with good credentials has been engaged to conduct the same. It is desirable that our people should hear his very instructive lectures several of which he has already delivered therefore by vote of the committee of the W C T U of Portland it was resolved that a copy of these resolutions be personally presented to the ministers of Portland with the earnest request that the same shall be read to their congregations on Thursday evening June 10, with such comments as they may deem best to make to secure the attendance of the people on these meetings And it was further resolved that a copy of this preamble and resolution be furnished to the city papers to be printed for the general information of our citizens

PORTLAND, FRIDAY, JUNE 12, 1885

[illegible] IT

Though Mr Pennoyer tries to work up an issue on water rates he knows of course, that the mayor and common council of the city have no power over the subject He can only promise, therefore that if he is elected he will "see that at the very first session of the legislature the right to remedy this great abuse"—i e, to reduce the rates—shall be conferred upon the city council This is promising a great deal Mr Pennoyer knows undoubtedly, that his position as mayor should he be elected, would give him no more power over the subject than he would have as a private citizen The truth is, the water rates ought not to be controlled by the common council It would open a flood gate of corruption that would swamp the city government Knowledge of this fact constituted the main reason why Mr Pennoyer's effort last winter to get the legislature to confer this power on the common council failed The rates should be regulated either by the legislature itself or by a commission appointed for the purpose by the governor, or by the legislature and the governor together What is reasonable and fair both for the public and for the water company should be studied, and the adjustment should be free from the danger of purchase or corruption If the common council is to fix the rate, the water company will be tempted to interfere with every election. It will have the strongest incentive to use money in large sums, either to control the election of members of the council or to manage them after they are elected On the one hand there will be danger of such corruptions as will make elections a hideous farce and subvert all government, and on the other the possibility of such injustice in the regulation of rates as will amount to virtual confiscation of the property It is quite characteristic of Mr Pennoyer's methods that he does not see the utter impracticability of his proposition to get the legislature to confer on the common council the power to fix the rates Every person of sound judgment sees at once that it will not do at all

Mr Pennoyer takes it upon himself to say that "the water company of this city is controlled by a political boss, who dictates the nominations of one party and has endeavored to control those of the other" It is probable that the author of this statement, who has a well known habit of relying upon his imagination for his facts, means to say that the water company is controlled by D P Thompson, and that the republican city ticket was nominated under Thompson's direction Both intimations rest on mere assumption. Thompson is among the small stockholders of the company, having sold a large part of his stock many months ago The members of the republican convention all know that he was not consulted in any way about the nominations, and that he was entirely ignorant of the intentions of the convention regarding them Besides, it is well known that among the owners and managers of the water company there is a strong democratic element—a fact that makes Mr Pennoyer's assumption that it is a republican political machine extremely ridiculous

It is well understood that Mr Gates favors reduction of water rates and it may easily be concluded that as a more practical man than Mr Pennoyer, he would favor sounder methods of securing the result Mr Pennoyer's scheme would simply introduce a contest of corrupt appliances into our city affairs, from which every citizen who thinks of it must shrink with alarm

The water rates charged in Portland are much too high We believe that the company had they rightly considered their own interests, would ere this have reduced them The power to reduce and regulate the rates by law must be sought from the legislature, but it should by no means be conferred on the common council As might be supposed, Mr Pennoyer's estimate of the annual sum collected by the company is excessive He says "We are taxed at least $1[illegible],000 per annum over and above what we ought justly to be taxed for our water supply It is known, however, to those who have looked into the subject for real information that the entire receipts of the water company, in its best year, have not quite reached the sum of $104,000. Loose declamation on this subject for the purposes of an election is not what is wanted The question is, indeed, in no way involved in the election to be held next Monday but it may be said since the subject is brought under discussion at this time, that the people of Portland are entitled to reduction and adjustment of water rates, and that as a citizen Mr Gates is not in any degree behind Mr. Pennoyer in his desire to secure this result, while, as we believe, he is far ahead of him in judgment as to the proper way to secure it.

There is yet another phase of the subject So fine a field for profitable investment as Mr Pennoyer's letter would indicate ought it would seem, to invite competition The city has for years been offering inducements to other companies to enter with water supply, yet no company comes in The reason may be that men who have money do not think that Mr Pennoyer's figures purporting to give an exhibit of profits are a sufficiently trustworthy basis to justify investment.

INFLICTION AND [illegible]

A dispatch from Washington states that the six postoffice inspectors are to be appointed to fill vacancies [illegible] these places were [illegible] dismissal [illegible] the plea that [illegible] officials were [illegible] made that this would [illegible] officials places is now continued

Since it is undoubtedly the [illegible] about the business at [illegible] manner, and do away with [illegible] false pretensions about it As the St Paul Times [illegible] says "The public has nothing in particular to complain of in these removals and appointments Some of them are good, some bad, and a great fraction indifferent. But it is well to remember that they exist, and that they give the lie to all pretensions that removals and appointments are being made solely with an eye to the good of the public service"

[illegible] an offensive partisan, that he worked for his party, and that he ought to be removed It would not be so easy to secure evidence that the incumbent had neglected his official duties, and it does not appear that such evidence is called for by the administration It is dishonest to attempt to convey the impression that removals are to be made for the [illegible] political [illegible] of spoils It is what they expected as a result of democratic administration The thing which honest men denounce is the [illegible] cowardly policy of vacating offices on the plea that they are unnecessary, and after a few weeks filling them up with democrats together with the cowardly and hypocritical [illegible] trumping up charges of "offensive partisanship" against republican officials, as a pretext for [illegible] of spoils to democratic [illegible] at least as partisan as the republicans [illegible]

It is [illegible] already [illegible] A few years ago the Sacramento [illegible] California was [illegible] stocked, and shad are now taken there in sufficient numbers to supply the markets of the whole state Many of the fish have ventured out to salt water and have found their way along the coast, and all the rivers as far north as Puget Sound have gotten a share Considerable numbers have been taken in the Columbia near Astoria during the past two years. The people of the Willamette valley will, within a year or two have more benefit from the stocking of the river with shad than they could from a fish-ladder at the falls big enough to pass up all the steel head salmon in the Pacific ocean

A dispatch quotes the London Daily Telegraph as expressing the hope that the United States government will soon raise the legation at London to an embassy, and as declaring that such a change would be universally approved in England This shows an ignorance of terms and customs hardly to be expected from so great a journal as the Telegraph The United States can never have an embassy in England or elsewhere so long as it remains a republic. An ambassador is the personal representative of a personal sovereign The highest rank possible under our government in its representation abroad is that of minister

It is the fashion at Washington with the president and his cabinet officers to tell members of congress who want a constituent appointed to any office, to "file the papers," and the matter will be duly considered A good story is told of an interview between Secretary Bayard and Congressman Scott of Erie Scott asked Bayard to give one of his constituents a consulship and was told to "file the papers" To which Scott replied "I filed a check for $25,000 last fall to help elect the administration, and I'll be blanked if I file anything more" Mr Scott's friend was appointed

The question of water rates, it is needless to say, can be in no possible way affected by the coming city election, let that election go how it will. But if Brother Pennoyer didn't embrace this opportunity to run off into a vagary he would disappoint people by failing to do a characteristic thing, Some years ago he would have made his canvass on the resolutions of '98, or perhaps on a theory of tidal motions designed to upset the Newtonian philosophy To those who know him none of his eccentricities are surprising, though some of them are rather remarkable

Brother Pennoyer's heart is usually in the right place But it may be judged from the letters which he has long had a habit of writing for the newspapers that his liver is pretty often out of gear

A new trouble grows out of the revision Temperance lecturers will now be compelled to call drinking saloons "sheol-holes"

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

THE VILLARD HOTEL.—A well known property owner, who is inclined to believe that the Villard hotel on Central school block will never be finished on the original plan, suggested yesterday a good use to which the edifice might be put, provided it could be bought cheap. Said he to an OREGONIAN reporter: "It would make a splendid city and county building. The three stories could be carried up with very little variation from the present plans. There would be room for the city and county jail in the basement, and elsewhere for the county court, the two departments of the state circuit and the police court, for the council chamber and all the city and county offices—ample room for all. We would have an imposing building and it would not cost a great deal of money. Our county court house is shabby and the city building is scarcely fit for habitation. Portland needs a city hall now. The matter was discussed two years ago, and plans were prepared for a building to cost about $140,000, to be located on one of the plaza blocks. Of course, the cost might be made heavy, but the remaining stories could be built of brick in a substantial manner for $200,000 to $250,000. If the people who own the property have made up their minds not to finish the hotel, and it looks that way now, they would sell out cheap. A better location for a city and county building can not be secured. Concentration of all public officers in one locality would be a great convenience to the public. There is another point. This is the time to build because material is lower than ever before known. And another thing: If a work of this kind were started, it would give an impetus to the entire city. I believe the tax payers generally would favor the scheme if they were assured that the work would be done substantially and honestly, without 'jobs.' I wish some one would find out how much the O. R. & N. will take for the property, and I believe if the question were put to the annual meeting next Monday it would be answered."

EPISCOPAL CONVOCATION.—The first service of the thirty-second annual convocation of the Episcopal church in Oregon was held in Trinity church in this city last evening. The following clergy were present, besides the Rt. Rev. B. Wistar Morris, the bishop of the diocese, the Rev Messrs. Anderson, Mackwan, Habersham, Wilson, John W. Sellwood, Foote, Chambers, James R. W. Sellwood, Johnson, Parker, Potwine and Rosenberg. After a short service the bishop delivered his annual address, which gave a very interesting review of the work of the church during the past year. He dwelt at some length upon the diocesan schools, spoke of the two new schools begun at the Cove in eastern Oregon, and of the encouraging future that lay before them, referred to several new rectories built, and of others that have been much improved, emphasized the importance of increasing the offerings for the Episcopal fund, called the attention of the people to the work done by the Good Samaritan hospital and of the interest which should be felt in it by all the parishes, and closed in a few earnest and feeling words to the clergy in regard to the sacredness and importance of their work and bidding them to the same enthusiasm in it as when they first entered upon it, that though they may grow weary in it, they may never grow weary of it. It was an excellent address and was listened to with deepest interest on the part of the whole congregation. The services for to-day are as follows: Celebration of the holy communion at 9 A. M., business meeting at 10 A. M., in the Sunday school room, service in the interest of woman's work, in the church at 3:30 P. M., when addresses will be delivered by several of the clergy, and a report read of the work done by the women of the church during the past year in this diocese.

RAILROAD MACHINE SHOPS.—It is likely that the suspense which has hung over the future of Albina will be relieved in a short time and that work will begin this summer on the car and machine shops. The status of affairs is about thus: The Northern Pacific Terminal Company have erected a large building which stands there empty. They have bought about $150,000 worth of material and machinery, which lies there unpacked. There is no difficulty about money, as nearly $4,000,000 was raised shortly after the company was formed, on a mortgage upon the company's possessions, and a good share of the money remains unexpended. At first the expense of terminal facilities afforded by the company was borne by the three Villard companies in the following proportion: Northern Pacific, 40 per cent., O. R. & N. Co., 40 per cent., O. & C., 20 per cent. Some time afterward the O. & C. withdrew, leaving the other two companies to pay 50 per cent. each. About the time the Terminal company was ready to commence operations on a scale commensurate with the needs of the railroad lines, the Northern Pacific began negotiations for a lease of the O. R. & N., and matters were held in abeyance, and this has been the condition of affairs ever since. Now, in the ordinary course of events, machine shops, or at least a large repair shop with a good deal of machinery will be a necessity. Should the joint lease be made, the Northern and the Union Pacific would probably divide the expense of maintaining it. Should there be no lease, the three eastern lines will no doubt join in the expense. The Terminal company cannot afford to let the machinery and buildings stand idle, the railroad lines need shops here and so soon as the greater problems are worked out, one way or the other, the matter of terminal facilities will come in for a share of attention.

BAKER COUNTY'S YOUTHFUL DESPERADO.—Sheriff J. T. Dealy of Baker county arrived here yesterday, and is stopping at the Holton. He gave an OREGONIAN reporter additional particulars of the murder of Louis Rivers and E. A. Allen, the well known stockmen. Young Winkleman stole ten head of work horses and was getting them out of the country, driving at night, and hiding and sleeping in the day time. Messrs. Rivers and Allen were out looking for lost horses and came upon him, waking him suddenly from sound sleep. Without stopping to think or to ask a question, Winkleman made up his mind that the men were after him. So he raised his Winchester rifle and fired upon Mr Rivers, who was about 100 yards away. The shot was fatal. A second shot killed Mr Allen, who was a few yards nearer. Then Winkleman killed the horses ridden by the murdered men, so that they returning home riderless might not give the alarm too soon, and allow him more opportunity to escape. Winkleman has confessed to what has been stated above. Sheriff Dealy and posse had a long, hard ride into Grant county after the young murderer, but he offered no resistance when the officers overtook him. His parents live in Lake county, and he claims to be only 18 years old. He is certainly not over 20. There is a very strong feeling against him, and it will not be surprising if he is taken out of jail and lynched.

MEETING OF THE FAITHFUL.—Last night an informal meeting of democratic "war horses" was held in the room over the Standard office, which was occupied last fall as campaign headquarters. There were present the candidates for city offices, all the prominent ward politicians and a good many of the boys who prefer to be under a democratic city administration. Among the guests were several prominent democrats whom Mr Pennoyer, in days gone by, has scored severely. The meeting resolved itself into a kind of a love feast in which every man present promised to forget past differences and to do his utmost for the success of the ticket, not so much on account of the personnel of the ticket but for the sake of the party. It was the general opinion that if Portland, the stronghold of the republican party in Oregon, could be captured next Monday, that the machinery could be turned to such good account, that the state could be secured to the democracy next June. However, the belief that Pennoyer could be elected mayor was not strong among the conservative element.

THREE CHINAMEN CONVICTED.—Judge Stearns' court did a land office business yesterday. Three Chinese criminals were tried before juries, convicted, and in one case sentenced to the penitentiary. Lewey Fee, who stole about $2000 worth of jewelry from a French courtesan on the night of the Kerron & Macbeth fire, about a year ago, was convicted before 11 o'clock A. M. Sing Hook, who was indicted for burglary in robbing Mrs Franz's hen roost, was found guilty by 3 P. M., and Ah Ling, who was charged with stealing some carpenter tools, was convicted by the jury drawn in his case without the jurors leaving their seats, and the prisoner waiving time for sentence, was condemned to five years in the penitentiary. At half past 4 the court adjourned.

LIGHT SENTENCE.—O. H. Cambridge, the ex policeman convicted of taking a bribe from Emil Weber and promising in consideration therefor not to appear against him in court, escaped yesterday with a very light sentence. When Weber laid the trap for Cambridge to fall into it was undoubtedly his intention to send the latter to the penitentiary, as a warning to anyone else not to interfere with his business he carries on. Had Cambridge been an honest man he might have convicted Weber of attempted bribery as well as of gambling, but he was not, and is now in the toils of the law himself. Through the clemency of Judge Stearns he has escaped the penitentiary, or the latter only sentenced him to six months in the county jail.

DR MARVIN GOING EAST.—At the prayer meeting last night Dr Marvin told his people that he would close his pastorate in Portland with the beginning of the summer vacation, which was near at hand. He said that though this might be a surprise to some of them, it was understood by several prominent members of the church that in reconsidering his resignation, which was presented more than a year ago, it was only for a short time. He was warmly attached to the church, but his interests in the east were such as to require his frequent attention. The church was now in a harmonious and prosperous condition, and he could leave it assured of its peace and prosperity. He congratulated the church upon the work accomplished during the year, and stated that in a few days they would have their new manual, to which the committee had given much time and labor. He felt that the church owed the committee a debt of gratitude for the faithful way in which it had discharged its duty.

CHINAMAN CHARGED WITH PERJURY.—Yesterday Justice Greene heard the testimony in a case where Go-Back Joe, a Chinaman (kind of a funny name for a Chinaman, isn't it?—no relative to Jump-off-Joe), was charged with perjury. He was held to answer in $500 bonds, which he furnished. It is charged that Joe bore false witness against his neighbors in the Maw Pan, assignee of the Hi Fook Co. against Ye Ark & Co. The bankrupt firm was composed of eighteen men, and Joe swore that he was one of the partners, which was untrue. Bringing charges of perjury against Chinese opens a rich lead for all concerned. If every Mongolian in Portland who has violated the ninth commandment is to be prosecuted, the district attorney can give employment to one deputy for every justice court in town, and each one will be kept busy throughout the year.

PIONEER DAY EXCURSION.—In yesterday's issue we published the programme of the reunion of the Pioneer Society at Oregon City on Monday next. The Willamette Steamboat Company, in order to accommodate the citizens of Portland and the people of the west side counties, who may desire to reach Oregon City by way of Portland, will run their elegant steamer Multnomah on that day as an excursion boat. She will leave her dock at the foot of Morrison street at 10 o'clock A. M. and at 4:30 o'clock P. M., and will leave Oregon City at 2:30 P. M. and again at 10 P. M. for Portland. This will give ample opportunity for those who wish to attend the campfire of the pioneers to do so, and yet reach home the same night. The company's advertisement will appear Saturday and Sunday.

DISAPPEARED.—R. D. Pitt, the real estate man, has been absent from the city for about ten days, and his whereabouts is unknown. His little office on Washington street is closed up, and so far as known he did not leave his future address, though several persons who had business transactions with him desire very much now to communicate with him. Shortly before he left he gave a chattel mortgage to C. D. Faling for $170 on his safe, show case, desk, and other office furniture. Subsequently he pawned the safe and show case to "Uncle Bloch" for $38. Sheriff Jordan has seized the property in the hands of the pawnbroker, and the remaining appurtenances of the office and has advertised them for sale. Unless Mr Pitt wants his property sacrificed he had better hurry back.

ALLEGED ABSCONDING DEBTOR.—M. T. Cleghorn, who is now in the county jail, yesterday applied for and obtained a writ of habeas corpus, returnable at 9 o'clock this morning in department No. 1 of the state circuit court, at which time and place the sheriff is required to produce the person of Mr Cleghorn and show cause why he should not be discharged from custody. Cleghorn was arrested by Constable Grant upon a warrant issued out of Justice Greene's court charging him with being an absconding debtor. At the time of his arrest he was about to leave on the train for the east. Cleghorn is a young man from Iowa and has not been long in Oregon. He had been stopping at the National hotel, the proprietors of which claim that he owes them $56 for board.

BURGLARS AROUND AGAIN.—The family of J. Holt Struble, residing at No. 190 Pacific street, was aroused by their four-year-old daughter early the other morning calling that some one was trying to get in at the back door. Mr Struble started for the door, whereat the burglar took alarm and made for the side fence, but seeing the neighbors on that side were awakened, he made a dash over the front fence, and was off down the street before any one could get a shot at him. A most successful burglary is reported from Albina, occurring Wednesday morning. The residence of one of the employes of the Portland flouring mills was broken into and a suit of clothes, together with some articles of smaller value carried off.

QUALIFICATIONS OF VOTERS.—The following question is propounded to THE OREGONIAN by "Anxious Inquirer": "A citizen having lived in East Portland for eighteen months past, and doing business in Portland, returns to Portland to live on the 1st of June. In which city has he a right to vote at the coming election?" Section 15 of the charter says: "No person is qualified to vote at an election under this act who has not been a resident of the city for six months, of the ward in which he offers to vote for ten days next preceding such election, and who does not possess the qualification of a legal voter of the state." The judges of election will probably decide that "Anxious Inquirer" has lost his vote this time.

HANDY CHICKEN COOP.—The latest product of Webfoot inventive genius is a chicken coop intended especially for the transportation of fowls. It was evolved from the mind of H. L. Burton, of East Portland, and is warranted if properly handled, to last forever. The coop is about four feet square and fifteen inches high, with a very strong frame. It may be called a "knock down" coop, for when it is empty it can be folded up, and is then less than four inches high. One of them found its way to a Front street commission house this week and the shipping clerks pronounce it the ne plus ultra of ornithological architecture.

ARRESTED IN JAIL.—Several days since one Sam Mansfield was brought down from The Dalles in charge of a deputy United States marshal, accused of selling whisky to Indians. He was convicted and sentenced to a short time in the county jail. Sheriff Dealy of Baker county in some manner learned that this Sam Mansfield was one Sam Brown who broke jail at Baker City last summer. He was then under indictment for stealing cattle. Yesterday Mr Dealy came down and after some little trouble with the United States authorities, secured his man and will start home with him this afternoon.

WHY CALIFORNIA BUTTER IS IMPORTED.—A Clatsop dairyman writes to THE OREGONIAN that California butter is received by each steamer at Astoria, although the local make is fully as good. The [illegible] for the importation is that California can be sold with profit at thirty-six cents per roll short weight, while local cannot be sold with profit at that price. The correspondent wants Astoria merchants to cease importing so as to keep money at home. This they will probably do when trading is not profitable, the matter of keeping money at home being a secondary one with dealers.

VERDICT REDUCED ONE HALF.—The jury in the case of William Allman vs. A. Dotta returned a verdict for the plaintiff in the sum of $20, an amount acknowledged by the defendant. Allman worked a time for Dotta, who is a restaurant keeper, and brought suit in Justice Bushweiler's court to recover pay for his services which he alleged to be reasonably worth $2[illegible]. A jury trial was also demanded in this court, and Allman got a verdict for $40. He was not satisfied with this and appealed the case to the state circuit court, where his verdict has now been cut down one half.

MADE DRUNK AND BEATEN.—A long, lank and lean specimen of humanity, named Amos Harvey was brought down from Salem yesterday by Deputy United States Marshal Hartford, charged both with selling whisky to and beating John Silas, a half-breed Indian. Harvey had an examination before a United States commissioner and was held to answer before the United States district court.

ANOTHER NATIONAL BANK.—The Bank of McMinnville has been authorized by the comptroller of the currency to organize under the national banking act of the United States as a national bank, to be known as the "First National Bank of McMinnville." D. P. Thomson, Jacob Wortman, John Wortman and H. C. Wortman are the parties to whom this authority is granted.

ANOTHER [illegible] IN THE FIELD.—The Oregon City base ball players have organized for the season and intend to give other clubs a rub for the championship. They play the Portland next Sunday at City View park, and will take the Soldiers on July 4. They claim to have as good a nine as any in the northwest, and are anxious to cross bats with any and all comers.

NOVEL BASEBALL.—A novel game of baseball will be played at Carlton, Yamhill county, at an early day. Nine young ladies will play nine gentlemen, who must be over 50 years of age. Popular feeling in that section seems to be all on the side of the young ladies.

U. S. CIRCUIT COURT.—Judge Deady will announce a decision in this court this morning in the case of Dillard v. the Northern Pacific Railway Co., on the motion to remand the cause to the state court.

RAISING MONEY.—The committees appointed to raise money for the Fourth of July celebration made fair progress yesterday. Though contributions were smaller than usual, they proved more general. The committee who canvassed south of Washington street report that only two men who were in a position to contribute refused. To-day they will finish their work and report to-night to the general committee.

JOINT BENEFIT.—Next Thursday evening Lincoln Post No. 4, G. A. R., will give a concert at Masonic hall, the proceeds to be equally divided between the relief fund of the post and Mrs Little. This lady is the "invisible singer" living on Morrison street, near Fifth, whose husband died recently. Mrs Little on this occasion will sing two ballads.

LAWN PARTY.—The lawn party to be given at the residence of S. D. Smith, Twelfth and Yamhill, by the ladies of the First Congregational church, will take place, rain or shine. An interesting literary and musical entertainment has been prepared, and church and friends are cordially invited to be present.

DECISIONS TO BE ANNOUNCED.—Judge Smith will announce in department No. 1 of the state circuit court, decisions in the following cases: Alice A. Fain vs. Mary F. Fain et al., action for dower, on the merits; Martha Comstock vs. Martha Butler, demurrer to complaint.

SAN GREAL SOCIETY.—The excursion planned for to-morrow has, on account of the unsettled state of the weather, been postponed for a few days. Announcement will be given of the time selected.

COMMENCEMENT EXERCISES OF McMINNVILLE COLLEGE

The only Baptist college on the north Pacific coast is located at McMinnville, fifty miles south of Portland on the west side. The place is beautiful for situation. It is in the midst of a rich agricultural district in fertility second to none in the state. To the west rise the Coast mountains, through whose lower passes come the health-giving sea breezes. Far to the east stretch in a long line of dark blue the Cascades, with Hood and Jefferson towering up white and grand.

The place has made great material progress during the last few years. Many comfortable residences have been built. The business of the town is carried on in far better houses than a few years ago, and still things move. A large brick block is now in process of erection. Notwithstanding hard times McMinnville is making substantial progress. Being the center of a large farming community and college town, the place has a sure future.

The college is taking on new life and vigor under the care of Dr. J. C. Anderson and a wise and progressive board of trustees. The new building is certainly the best adapted to its purposes of any in the state and reflects great credit upon the managers of the building enterprise.

The first item on the commencement programme was a sermon on Sunday evening, June 7, in the Baptist church by Rev. C. M. Hill, pastor of the Baptist church at Eugene City. This was the annual sermon on ministerial education. The theme was "Training as an element of power in the Christian ministry."

Monday evening, June 8, in the college chapel, Hon. W. C. Johnson of Oregon City delivered an address before the Philergian society.

Tuesday at 10:30 A. M., the annual educational address was given by Rev. M. J. Ring, pastor of the Baptist church at Salem. The speaker, after showing the necessity of higher education, pointed out the advantages of denominational schools over state institutions and closed with a strong plea for the equipment and maintenance of McMinnville college.

In the evening at 8 occurred the annual class exhibition. Following is the programme:

Invocation ... Rev. C. M. Hill
Anthem ... Beautiful Are Thy Towers
Oration ... A Mother's Influence
F. F. Clark
Oration ... Christian Heroism
H. [illegible] Boardman
Music ... Duett, I've Wandered in Dreams

Miss Ella Johnson, Organist

The programme was well rendered. There were [illegible] this year. Those taking part in this exhibition are sophomores. The orations were for the most part well written, the music was excellent, but the singing of the male quartet deserves especial mention.

Wednesday at 3 P. M. occurred the students' reunion, at which bright and interesting speeches were made by President Anderson, Rev. C. H. Hobart of East Portland, Rev. [illegible] of Forest Grove and several students. At 8 P. M. of same day Rev. C. H. Hobart delivered a fine address to a large audience on "The Motives that Move the Great Men of the World." His address was one of considerable merit and was as well received as any address delivered at the exercises.

WILLAMETTE UNIVERSITY

Fourth Day

The library, art room, society halls and other parts of the university building were open to the public all day Wednesday, and many persons visited them. The work of the art pupils, together with the collection of natural history specimens, were the subject of many favorable comments from the visitors. The herbarium of the class in botany also received a due share of favorable notice.

At 1:30 P. M. occurred the annual business meeting of the alumni association, which had a very full attendance. The association elected as their officers for the ensuing year: President, Mrs. Jennie [illegible] Miller, class of '66; secretary, George B. Gray, class of '78; treasurer, Mrs. Cora [illegible] Moores, class of '[illegible]. They also elected as trustees of the university under the new arrangement, Mr. Thomas H. Crawford, A. M., class of '[illegible]; George B. Gray, A. B., and George P. Hughes, A. B., class [illegible].

At 3 P. M. the chapel was crowded to listen to the prize contest in declamation. The following programme was so well rendered that at its close [illegible] the audience wished there could have been [illegible] instead of there being [illegible] for the best gentleman speaker and one for the best lady speaker.

At 8 P. M. the literary exercises of the alumni were held in the chapel, which was [illegible] to its full capacity. Among the most interesting parts of the exercises were the essay by Miss Frances M[illegible], class of [illegible], the recitation by Miss Bertha Moores, class of [illegible], the [illegible] by [illegible] A. Miller, class of '8[illegible], and the [illegible] by Mrs May Knott, class of [illegible]. After the close of the literary exercises the alumni and invited guests repaired to [illegible] [illegible].

A QUESTION ABOUT
Brown's Iron Bitters
ANSWERED.
The question has probably been asked thousands of times, How can Brown's Iron Bitters cure everything? Well, it doesn't. But it does cure any disease for which a reputable physician would prescribe IRON. Physicians recognize Iron as the best restorative agent known to the profession, and inquiry of any leading chemical firm will substantiate the assertion that there are more preparations of iron than of any other substance used in medicine. This shows conclusively that iron is acknowledged to be the most important factor in successful medical practice. It is, however, a remarkable fact, that prior to the discovery of BROWN'S IRON BITTERS no perfectly satisfactory iron combination had ever been found.
BROWN'S IRON BITTERS does not injure the teeth, cause headache, or produce constipation—all other iron medicines do. BROWN'S IRON BITTERS cures Indigestion, Biliousness, Weakness, Dyspepsia, Malaria, Chills and Fevers, Tired Feeling, General Debility, Pain in the Side, Back or Limbs, Headache and Neuralgia—for all these ailments iron is prescribed daily.
BROWN'S IRON BITTERS, however does not cure in a minute. Like all other thorough medicines, it acts slowly. When taken by men the first symptom of benefit is renewed energy. The muscles then become firmer, the digestion improves, the bowels are active. In women the effect is usually more rapid and marked. The eyes begin at once to brighten, the skin clears up, healthy color comes to the cheeks, nervousness disappears, functional derangements become regular, and if a nursing mother, abundant sustenance is supplied for the child. Remember Brown's Iron Bitters is the ONLY iron medicine that is not injurious. Physicians and Druggists recommend it.

THURSDAY, June 11

Of the weather one would feel better satisfied if he could report seasonable conditions. During the week several showers fell along the length of the valley and over the eastern section. This morning a light rain began falling which continues, although of lessened density as the day passes. The fall here for eight hours to-day is .32 inches. The signal service notes no rain at other stations but threatening weather at Roseburg. Intermediate points report rain; those of the eastern section except Walla Walla and Wallula heavy rains last night or this morning. This new rain brings out expressed fears of rust in the valley. If followed by a hot sun some damage may result. Of the eastern section crops nothing but the best word is said. The produce markets have shown a free amount of seasonable activity in the week.

PRODUCE RECEIPTS—Past 24 hours: 660 ctls wheat, 528 bbls flour 416 ctls oats, 248 ctls barley 59 ctls bran 504 ctls millstuff 60,512 lbs wool 25 lbs hides, 111 cs eggs 104 bxs fruit, 47 pkgs butter. Also 3224 ctls wheat 1522 ctls barley 179 064 lbs wool, 508 lbs hides 750 sks flaxseed from the eastern section.

IMPORTS—Per str State of California include 198 hf 476 bbls 100 bxs sugar, 29 kgs syrup, 102 sks 91 cs coffee 110 sks 425 mats rice 700 sks salt 91 pkgs tea, 28 cs pickles, 135 sks beans, 115 cs canned goods, 111 cs candies 51 cs saleratus, 50 tins matches 22 cs extract 73 pkgs spices, 6 cs sugar lemon 45 cs paste, 56 cs ax grease, 10 cs farina 243 cs baking powder 10 cs blue 2752 bxs soap 6 cs candy, 40 sks nuts, 7 cs seeds, 20 tcs lard, 25 cs cod fish, 91 bxs dried fruit 5 cs honey 21 cs cheese 3 cs butter 110 sks corn, 15 bls hop cloth 16 bls jute cuttings, 131 bls bags, 200 bbls plaster 30 bbls sulphur, 6 cs limes 50 cs lemons, 23 sks onions 226 sks potatoes 230 bxs oranges, 484 pkgs fruits and vegetables 765 kgs 3 bxs nails 16 pkgs tobacco, 24 cs cigars.

FREIGHTS—The prevailing dullness was broken by the sale of the Mount Washington and her engagement to carry a full cargo of wheat to San Francisco early in the week and later by the charter of the Zamora iron for wheat loading to the United Kingdom. The particulars of this last charter are not obtainable at this writing other than she carries Walla Walla wheat for account of two or three parties now having holdings here. Of the market there is little to say and a quotation is not possible. For iron an offer of 43s 9d for orders was cabled late this week, but owners hold higher views, they thinking 45s small enough money for the voyage. The open spot list now consists of three iron and one wood and rumor says one of the iron was fixed on the other side for next season's loading. Of the engaged fleet, the Remonstrant is slowly receiving salmon at Astoria, the Janet McNeil is there to finish with like freight, the Haddingtonshire and Archer are here receiving grain but offering salmon room and the Zamora is not yet ready. Of futures there is little to note, views regarding probable rates widely varying and the advisability of contracting now being an unsettled question. Little is offering, and this at no settled rates. The Burmah, now due, will take salmon berth.

FLOUR—Demand slow but prices are steady and agents are not disposed to attract business by rate cutting. Retailers as a rule have free stocks and until these are lessened a slow call must be experienced. Some Walla Walla is going to San Francisco while the foreign movement is inactive at the time. Standards quoted $4 50 less usual trade discount, others $3 75@4.

MILLSTUFF—Stocks fairly large but prices are without material change. The request is only local and is light. Quote jobbing values: Bran, $11@12, chop $16 50@18, shorts $14@1[illegible], middlings $18@20.

BARLEY—Considerable going to San Francisco as the local request is small. Offerings have increased. Best brewing sold at $20 while feed is quoted $16@18 per ton.

OATS—The movement continues free and the aggregate of sales is large, heavy purchases being made in the interior for shipment. Steamers are carrying out 8000 to 9000 sacks and the movement does not promise early lessening. The shipping market has shown weakness which prompts selling on the part of local holders, values being rather less firm than for last week. The local trade pays 34@35c for best feed qualities, and anything more than 36c is highly uncertain. For shipment the figure is seldom exceeded and buyers are less anxious to load up.

POTATOES—Old jobbing at 15@20c; new selling out at 1¼@1½c.

ONIONS—Rather weaker, selling out at 2¼@2½c. Trade quiet, the call being purely consumptive.

TROPICAL FRUITS—Lemons show some weakness, other sorts steady. Quote oranges at $4@5, lemons $6 5, limes $1 25, bananas $3 [illegible], cocoanuts 7c.

FRUITS, VEGETABLES—Fruits are in liberal supply and without this is shortened by cold weather they promise an overstock. The local call is easily supplied by the sorts offered. Cherries coming in more freely, some being shipped east. As a rule berries are plentiful and cheap, strawberries selling at 3c, raspberries 4@4c, currants 3@4c, gooseberries 2@3c, wild blackberries 50c per gallon, cherries 4c for common and 5@6c for Royal Annes. California peaches and apricots $1, tomatoes $1 25. Vegetables in fair sale: cabbage 2c, cauliflower $1 25, peas 5c, beans 6¼c. California new apples off to $1 50, old local 75c@$1 25.

BUTTER—Choice dairy moving steadily at 22½@25c, fair to good slow at 18@20c, inferior dull at 10@15c. Supplies almost wholly from local sources.

POULTRY—Chickens have ruled quiet but fairly steady; choice old bringing $[illegible]@4 and young $[illegible]@3. Ducks and geese in small demand and dull at $5 and $6@8.

EGGS—Lessened arrivals and low stocks caused an advance to 14c and the market closes firm.

HAY—Values show no improvement but present rains are not helpful to growing fields. Baled quoted at $9@10 for choice and $6 50@8 for common.

ASSOCIATED PRESS MARKETS.

NEW YORK STOCK MARKET

NEW YORK, June 11.—Government bonds were strong, with moderate business. The stock market was dull and strong from the opening until after 2 o'clock, without development of a single feature of interest. First prices were generally a shade above closing figures of last evening. There was a fractional reduction from this quotation, a slight reaction, and then nothing but dullness and steadiness during the time referred to, extreme fluctuations being generally considerably less than 1 per cent. In the last hour, however, increased activity was accompanied by a decided advance during which in most cases the highest prices of the day were established for active stocks, and the strength and activity continued until the close of the board.

The Mail and Express says: The number of transactions in mining shares was small. Several hundred shares of American Flag sold at 4c. Other shares were Standard at $10 50, Lacrosse 9@10, American Flag 4, California and Virginia $3 25, Caledonia Black Hill 60, Sutro 19, Alta 90, Eureka 8, Grand Prize 60.

For Weak Women

MRS LYDIA E. PINKHAM: About the first of September 1881 my wife was taken with uterine hemorrhage. The best styptic the physician could prescribe did not check it and she got more and more enfeebled. She was troubled with Prolapsus Uteri, Leucorrhea, numbness of the limbs, sickness of the stomach and loss of appetite. I purchased a trial bottle of your Vegetable Compound. She said she could discover a salutary effect from the first dose. Now she is comparatively free from the Prolapsus, Stomach's sickness, etc. The hemorrhage is very much better and is less at the regular periods. Her appetite is restored, and her general health and strength are much improved. We feel that we have been wonderfully benefited and our hearts are drawn out in gratitude for the same and in sympathy for other sufferers, for whose sakes we allow our names to be used." O. W. EATON, Thurston, N. Y.

Under the rules of the association the following officers were entitled to seats and were present: Thomas A Jordan of Portland, B S Worsley, C W Fulton, W J Barry, I P Hicks, [illegible] of Astoria, A J Wheeler and F F Hodgkin of Salem, C A Stewart and J N Hoffman of Albany, A V R Snyder of McMinnville.

Frank F Hodgkin the secretary then presented his report which reviewed the progress of the association for the year and the tournaments and other matters which had come before the executive board, also the work of the special committee which obtained the passage of a state law providing for the exemption of firemen from certain duties. Nineteen companies now belong to the association. The receipts of the year including balance on hand were $316 60, and the expenditures $177 40, leaving a balance now in the treasury of $139 20. In closing his report the secretary suggested a possible opening of the doors of the association to volunteer firemen of Washington territory, some of whom had already made application for admission.

The following resolutions were then read and adopted:

Resolved, That section 8 of the rules of this association governing hose companies be amended so as to read as follows: "Sec 8. No professional runner shall be allowed to compete in any contest. The term 'professional runner' is applied to one who is following, or has followed foot racing as a profession or means of livelihood, and current reputation shall be deemed conclusive evidence of such profession, which shall be determined by the directors of this association."

Resolved, That article VI of the constitution so as to read: "every fire department in Oregon and Washington territory shall be entitled in this association to two delegates for each company that said department represents."

Resolved, That the 800-yard wet test which for the past three years has been the only hose contest, be considered the championship race until the New York contest be won twice in succession by any company which may be a member of the association.

The advantages of hose carts over hose carriages was discussed by Thomas A Jordan, ex-chief engineer Portland fire department; the best methods of supplying cities with water and the best kind of fire apparatus for small cities was discussed by A J Wheeler of Salem; discussed, "What class of men are adapted to make good and successful firemen?" Our state association, its objects, aims and purposes was given a thorough discussion by C W Fulton. The durability and reliability of hose was also discussed, and W J Barry gave a practical discussion of "Forest fires and the best method of extinguishing the same."

The convention then appointed the following judges in to-day's contests: William Preston, [illegible] Hamann, A F Wheeler, T A Jordan, W J Barry. The following were selected as time keepers: S W Church, J W Hume, J A Sanctuary.

The election of officers for the ensuing year resulted as follows: President, B S Worsley; vice-president, J A Hoffman; secretary and treasurer, F F Hodgkin; board of directors, A J Wheeler, C J Trenchard, J A Sanctuary. The place of meeting for the next tournament has not yet been officially decided upon.

THE PARADE

In the afternoon was a splendid affair and the best that could be [illegible]. Large crowds filled the streets, the lawns and roofs, the windows and the grand stand that had been erected on Hamilton street. The affair passed off without any accident, and reflects credit on those who organized and participated in it.

First came a detachment of police, then the chief engineer and his assistants, the marshal and aids, followed by the H A C band from Salem, which made music along the route. The delegates to the State Firemen's Association took a recess to take part in the parade and marched after the band, followed by Astoria Engine Company No 1, the engine magnificently decorated with wreaths of flowers and heavy masses of brilliant blossoms, and drawn by four brown horses. Astoria No 1 hose team was next in line, after which came Albany hose team No 1, a fine looking body of men, followed by Salem No 3, Tigers No 2 of Salem and the Tiger No 2 hose team; this was an object of interest and praise along the line of march. Following came the Eugene team, and after them marched Rescue engine company No 2, their engine glittering in the light and gorgeous with flowers, drawn by four gray horses and followed by Rescue hose team. The tender team preceded the fine looking delegation that drew the apparatus of Alert H & L No 1.

Contests began this morning at 9 o'clock and were as follows:

HOSE CART SMASHED

While the Eugene team was exercising with the cart of Astoria Hose Company No 2 late last evening, the butt of the hose came loose, flew around with the wheel and made a total wreck of the cart. Bart Dunten, who was on the tongue, was struck on the leg by the coupling and received a severe wound.

THE EAST SIDE.

CITY GUARDS REORGANIZE.

Last evening the East Portland City Guard, company F, First regiment, Second brigade O S M, assembled at Hall & Stott's hall for the purpose of reorganization. M J McMahon, the newly elected captain, has started in with the determination to have an efficient and well regulated company, and with this object in view deemed it advisable to adopt a new constitution and by-laws and reenlist the members that so desired. These measures were taken last evening and twenty-two members re-enlisted while five recruits were enrolled. About sixty names appear on the old roll and it is confidently expected the new roll will reach this figure or nearly so within a month.

[illegible] HOUSE WARMING

The house warming social of [illegible] Hook and Ladder Company last evening was as pleasant and satisfactory in every respect as the most fastidious could wish. The new engine house, located on [illegible] street near Holladay avenue, was thronged by ladies and gentlemen with the better class of the [illegible] of all ages, showing a kind [illegible] desire on their part to assist and by their patronage and presence the efforts of the company in the public behalf, while the latter, appreciative of their response, met them in open-handed and bid them welcome to their festive hall. Dancing was indulged in the lower room while that above was set apart for sociability generally and supper particularly. The latter was devoured with a relish indicative of its quality and purity, and yet there was plenty for all to get full satisfaction, which was invariably the case. All parties interested are to be congratulated on the successful result, socially and financially. In the latter respect it will shortly speak for itself by a new bell that will ornament the tower of the new building.

NOTES

A Bryant memorial entertainment will be given at the Congregational church this evening by the schools of Holladay's addition and Albina. An attractive programme has been prepared.

An effort is being made to organize a fire company in the Third ward. It deserves the needful encouragement.

George Smith of Lebanon, formerly of this city, came down yesterday to visit his parents near this city. He will return Monday.

Persons dissatisfied with the tickets nominated by the republicans and democrats have caused a meeting to be called for this evening at the council chamber for the purpose of nominating a third ticket.

Smith & Storm have been awarded the contract for the plumbing and drainage on the new hotel of the O R & N Co at Huntington. They will commence thereon some time next week and finish in about a month.

Milton H McQuaid, aged 23, son of J M McQuaid, died at [illegible] A M Wednesday, from consumption, after a lingering sickness. Funeral services were held at the residence, corner of Third and [illegible] streets, at [illegible] o'clock yesterday, Rev H C H[illegible] of the Baptist church officiating, and the remains taken by hearse to Lone Fir for interment.

POLITICAL EXPRESSION.

Philadelphia Press: George W Julian of Indiana and E J Phelps of Vermont should be put together in a glass case. They are, by all odds, the most remarkable fossils excavated by the present administration.

New York Tribune: Mr Cleveland complains that nearly every man who comes to see him spends his whole time about the offices. The only thing curious about this is that Mr Cleveland should find it curious.

Chicago News: If Postmaster General Vilas will make a public announcement when he receives the resignation of bulldozer Meade of Hazlehurst, Mississippi, provided he does receive it, he will accommodate a large number of republican papers.

Columbus Journal: Henry Ward Beecher's son [illegible] of civil service has come to a practical solution. His son was yesterday appointed collector of customs for the district of Puget sound. W. J. who so thoughtfully [illegible] for temporal welfare is immense. Mugwumpism is one of the links that Davis [illegible] and [illegible] it not.

Louisville Courier Journal: The president has good reason to distrust the professional politicians. Ever little dog of a congressman who has not had the courage and the honesty to resist unworthy [illegible] is a lying mendicant [illegible] through an endorsement of his particular hobby thief [illegible]. This has been going on for three [illegible] this.

Chicago Inter Ocean: The secretary of the treasury has quite a love for the New York bankers. He recently paid over to them over $[illegible] 000 in gold. How long it will take to transfer all the gold from the vaults of the United States treasury to New York each one can figure out for himself. As it is the people's money, they may have something to say about this high handed misdemeanor.

A SHIP RUNS INTO A TUG

PORT TOWNSEND, June 11.—[Special.]—At 2 A M, as the tug [illegible] was towing the bark Colusa to [illegible] miles below Port Angeles, the ship Blue Jacket ran into the former, striking her amidships with her stem, breaking a number of timbers, knees and three of her deck beams. Fortunately the blow was received squarely by a beam, thus preventing the tug being cut in two. Some of the steam pipes were burst and the smokestack was carried away by the vessel's head gear, steam escaping in every direction and to all appearance the tug was ready to blow up. Five of the crew, all of which were sleeping below and hearing the escaping steam, made a rush on deck in the night clothes and clambered over the bow of the Blue Jacket. The bark Colusa cut the hawser and narrowly escaped colliding with the Blue Jacket also. The tug went into Port Angeles to make temporary repairs and arrived here this evening. It will take several days to repair her. The Blue Jacket's cutwater is badly crushed for about six feet each way above and below the water line but received no other damage, and is making no water.

SEVERAL MEN KILLED BY APACHES

TOMBSTONE, June 11.—Intelligence has been received here of the killing of a Mexican named Ochoa last night, six miles south of Bisbee in the Whetstone mountains. This morning, John Slaughter and J T Patton arrived in town from Swisshelm's and reported the killing of four soldiers by Indians on Tuesday in Guadalupe canyon. It appears that Captain Lawton with a troop of cavalry, had entered the canyon, and leaving the wagons in charge of a guard of seven men started out on a scout. While the guard was engaged in eating dinner they were surprised by the Indians and four of their number were killed outright. Two of the soldiers made their escape to Cloverdale and have since joined their command but traces of [illegible] Lawton could be found. The Indians, after securing the provisions and ammunition of the train, burned the wagons and drove off the horses.

HOW TO SHORTEN LIFE.

The receipt is simple. You have only to take a violent cold and neglect it. Abernethy, the great English surgeon, asked a lady who told him she only had a cough: "What would you have? The plague?" Beware of "only coughs." The worst cases can, however, be cured by DR. WM. HALL'S BALSAM for the LUNGS. In Whooping Cough and Croup it immediately allays irritation, and is sure to prevent a fatal termination of the disease. Sold by druggists.
